is enrolled in the carpentry program. In addition to the scholarship, Ms. Walton will work part-time at Lowe's.

According to Christy Clements, personnel training coordinator for Lowe's Home Center in Tuscaloosa, this scholarship program is offered nationally to students enrolled in technical training programs in colleges and universities. "This is the first time the scholarship has been offered locally. The scholarship is given to students in electricity, electronics, carpentry or other technical fields," according to Clements.

Students work part-time while in the program in order that they may continue to work at Lowe's after completing the program.

CALLING ALL BIBLIOPHILES!

The library and reading departments along with Circle K, a student service organization, are sponsoring a book drive, and they need your help. They are collecting books for the residents of the Brewer Porch Children's Center, children between the ages of 10 and 15.

If you have a new or previously read children's book which you can donate, please drop it in one of the collection boxes located in the libraries on the Martin and Fredd campuses. If you do not have a book to donate, but would like to give money toward the purchase of a new book, you may do that too. The drive will continue through November.

THE CRUCIBLE NOW AT BEAN-BROWN

Arthur Miller's classic drama THE CRUCIBLE is currently playing at the Bean-Brown Theatre with performances scheduled through October 3.

Directed by Michael Carr, THE CRUCIBLE, which won the Tony Award for best play in 1953, is the story of the witchcraft trials in Old Salem. THE CRUCIBLE, which is being presented by Shelton's theater department, is considered author Arthur Miller's examination of 'mob mentality.'

Performances are scheduled October 1 and 2 at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, October 3, at 2 p.m. Tickets prices are $10 for adults and $5 for students and may be purchased by calling Theatre Tuscaloosa box office, 391-2277. A special 9:30 a.m. student matinee is scheduled for Friday, October 1.

FACES 'N PLACES

*WHO WILL BE MISS SHELTON STATE 2000?

The Miss Shelton State Pageant will be February 15 in the Bean-Brown Theatre.

The college will sponsor a workshop for all interested students on October 12 at noon in the D Rooms. If you would like more info on the pageant, contact Lisa Matherson in the financial aid office, ext. 3903.

*One America Week

The U.S. Department of Education has announced the creation of the President's Initiative for One America, "an effort to help us build One America in the 21st Century." Our campus efforts will focus on issues of diversity and shared values during "One America Week," October 25-29. A number of activities are currently being planned. If you are interested in helping, contact Debbie Grimes, ext. 2233 or Lucy Kubiszyn, 2221.
